Electronic Health Records: The Newest Teaching Tool

EHR TOOLS

PREPARE

- Patient-Centered Care

PATIENT-CENTERED CARE

- Problem List Notes
- Notes
- History
- Medications

PATIENT INSTRUCTIONS

1. Prior to visit review:
   - Problem List
   - Prior Notes
   - Medications
   - Social History

2. Using EHR to Promote Patient Centered Care

   PREPARE

   - Patient-Centered Care

   PATIENT-CENTERED CARE

   - Document Social History
   - Make Eye Contact
   - Share Screen
   - Share Decisions

3. Patient Instructions

   PREPARE

   - Patient-Centered Care

   PATIENT-CENTERED CARE

   - Did you know?

     Students can update problem lists, patient histories, medication reconciliation, smart forms, and patient education!

   PATIENT INSTRUCTIONS

   1. Set Goals
   2. Education
   3. Community Resources
   4. Follow-up Plan

REFERENCES:
1. Douglas J. Bowes, MD; Jim H. Shropshire, MD; Kayleen Pagan, MD; Jennifer Frank, MD; Sabina Deyh, MD. Medical College of Wisconsin and University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health: Teaching Care Concepts in Family Medicine Using Electronic Health Records. Feb. 2009.
2. Wei Wei Lee, MD, MPH; Lolita Alknews, MD, Jeannie Faman, MD, MPH, Vivek Atiy, MD, MAPP. Hey Doc, Pay Attention to Me - Teaching Patient-Centered EMR Use. CJEAA March 2014
3. Medicare Teaching Guides

Created by WISE FM Kendra Knox, MD, Melissa Stiles, MD & John Buhl, MD with graphic support from S. Sabourin. Published October 2016 as part of WISE FM (Wisconsin Institute of Scholars & Educators in Family Medicine), a statewide faculty development collaborative affiliated with...