DEDICATION . . .

“And there are those who give and know not pain in giving, nor do they seek joy, nor give with mindfulness of virtue . . .”

The Very Reverend Daniel Sandstedt

THE TOUCHING OF SOULS

A need is not only present when a man is broken in spirit or body, searching for a means of solace. For how does he survive during all times without the same understanding that guided him through extreme need? Every day's collage of emotions, the sparks of joy, the clouds of sorrow, and the quiet intervals between them, demand the sensitivity of man for fellow man. Giving and receiving, to satisfy this need, is the daily beauty of life and fulfills existence as a whole person. We found Kahlil Gibran's THE PROPHET a faithful expression of this basic truth of humanity and have quoted from it throughout our book.

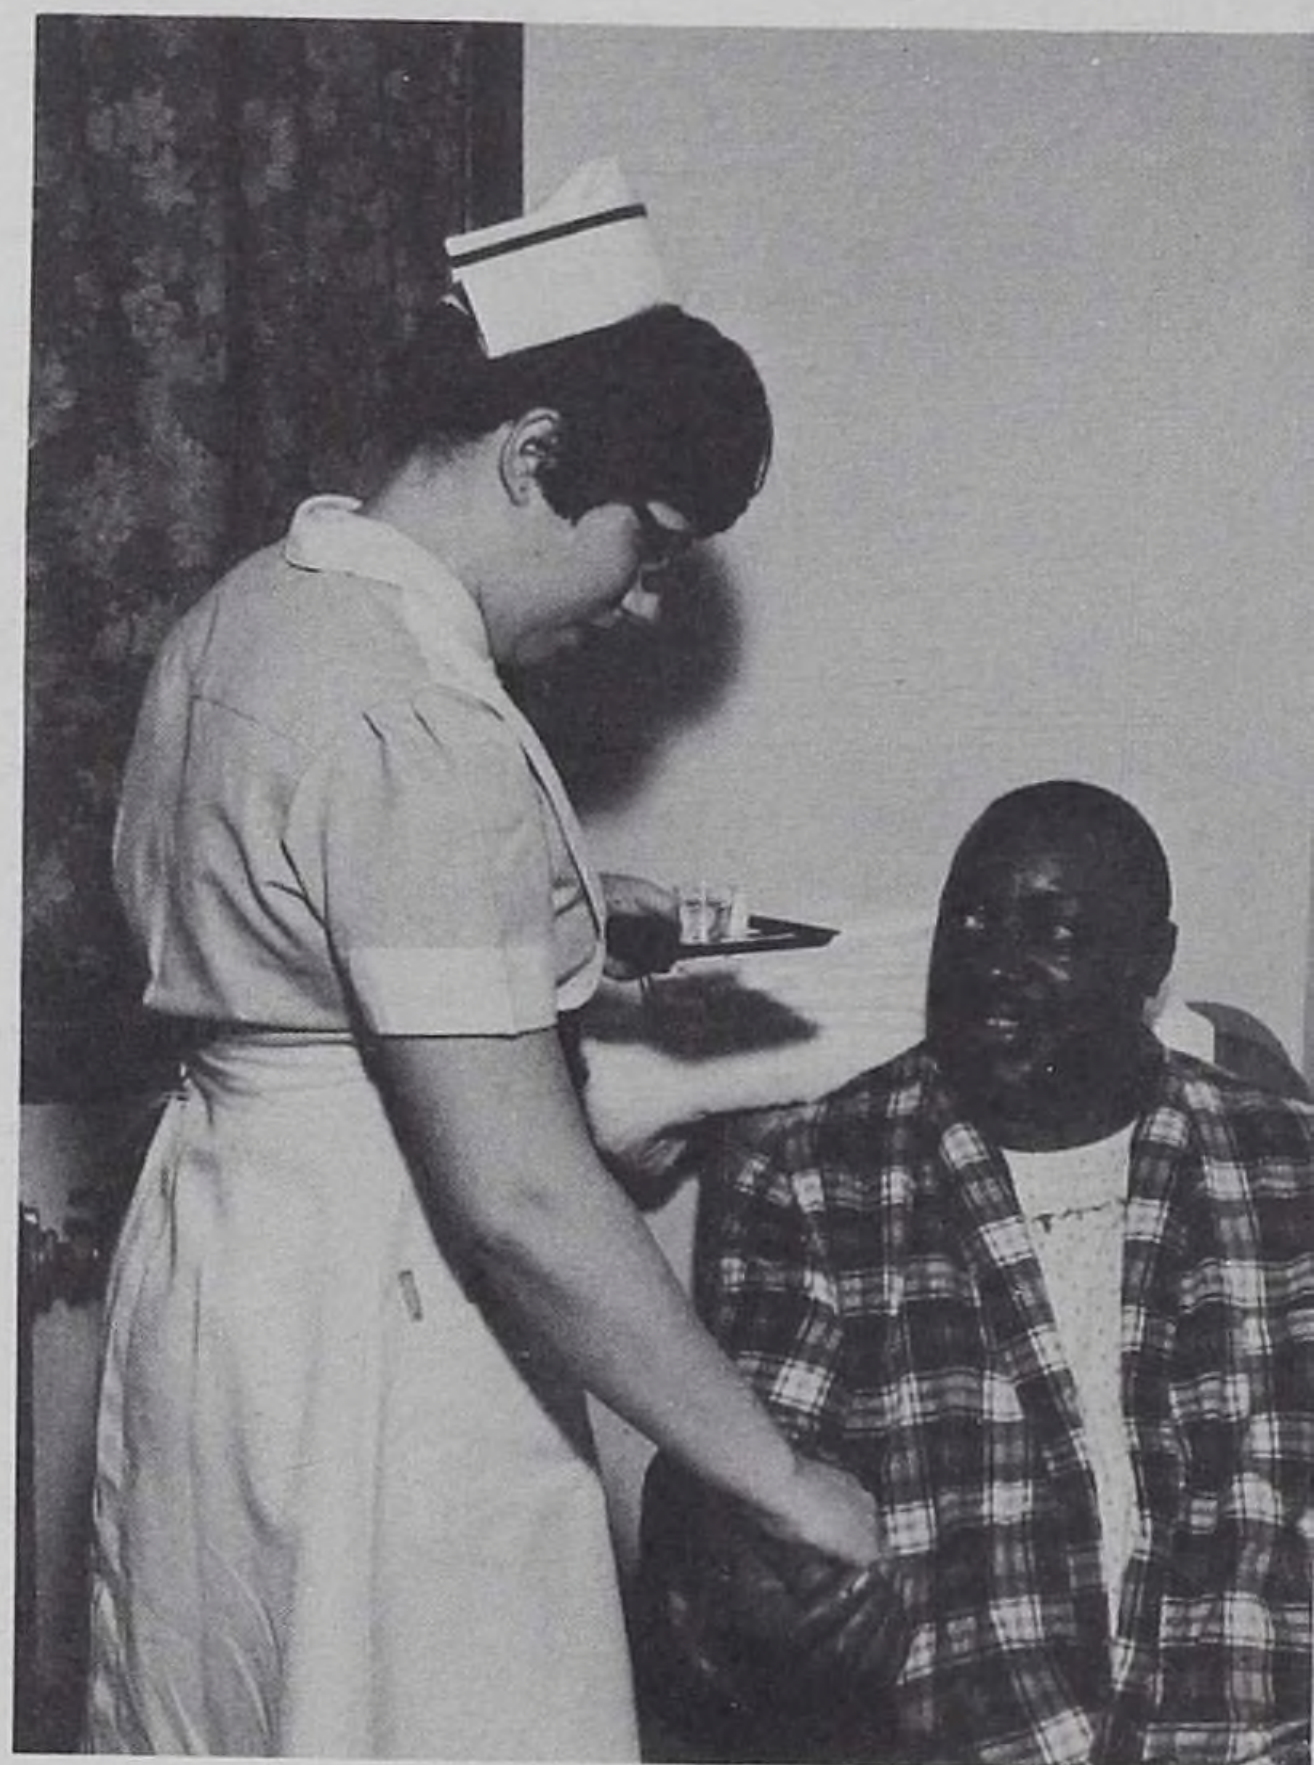

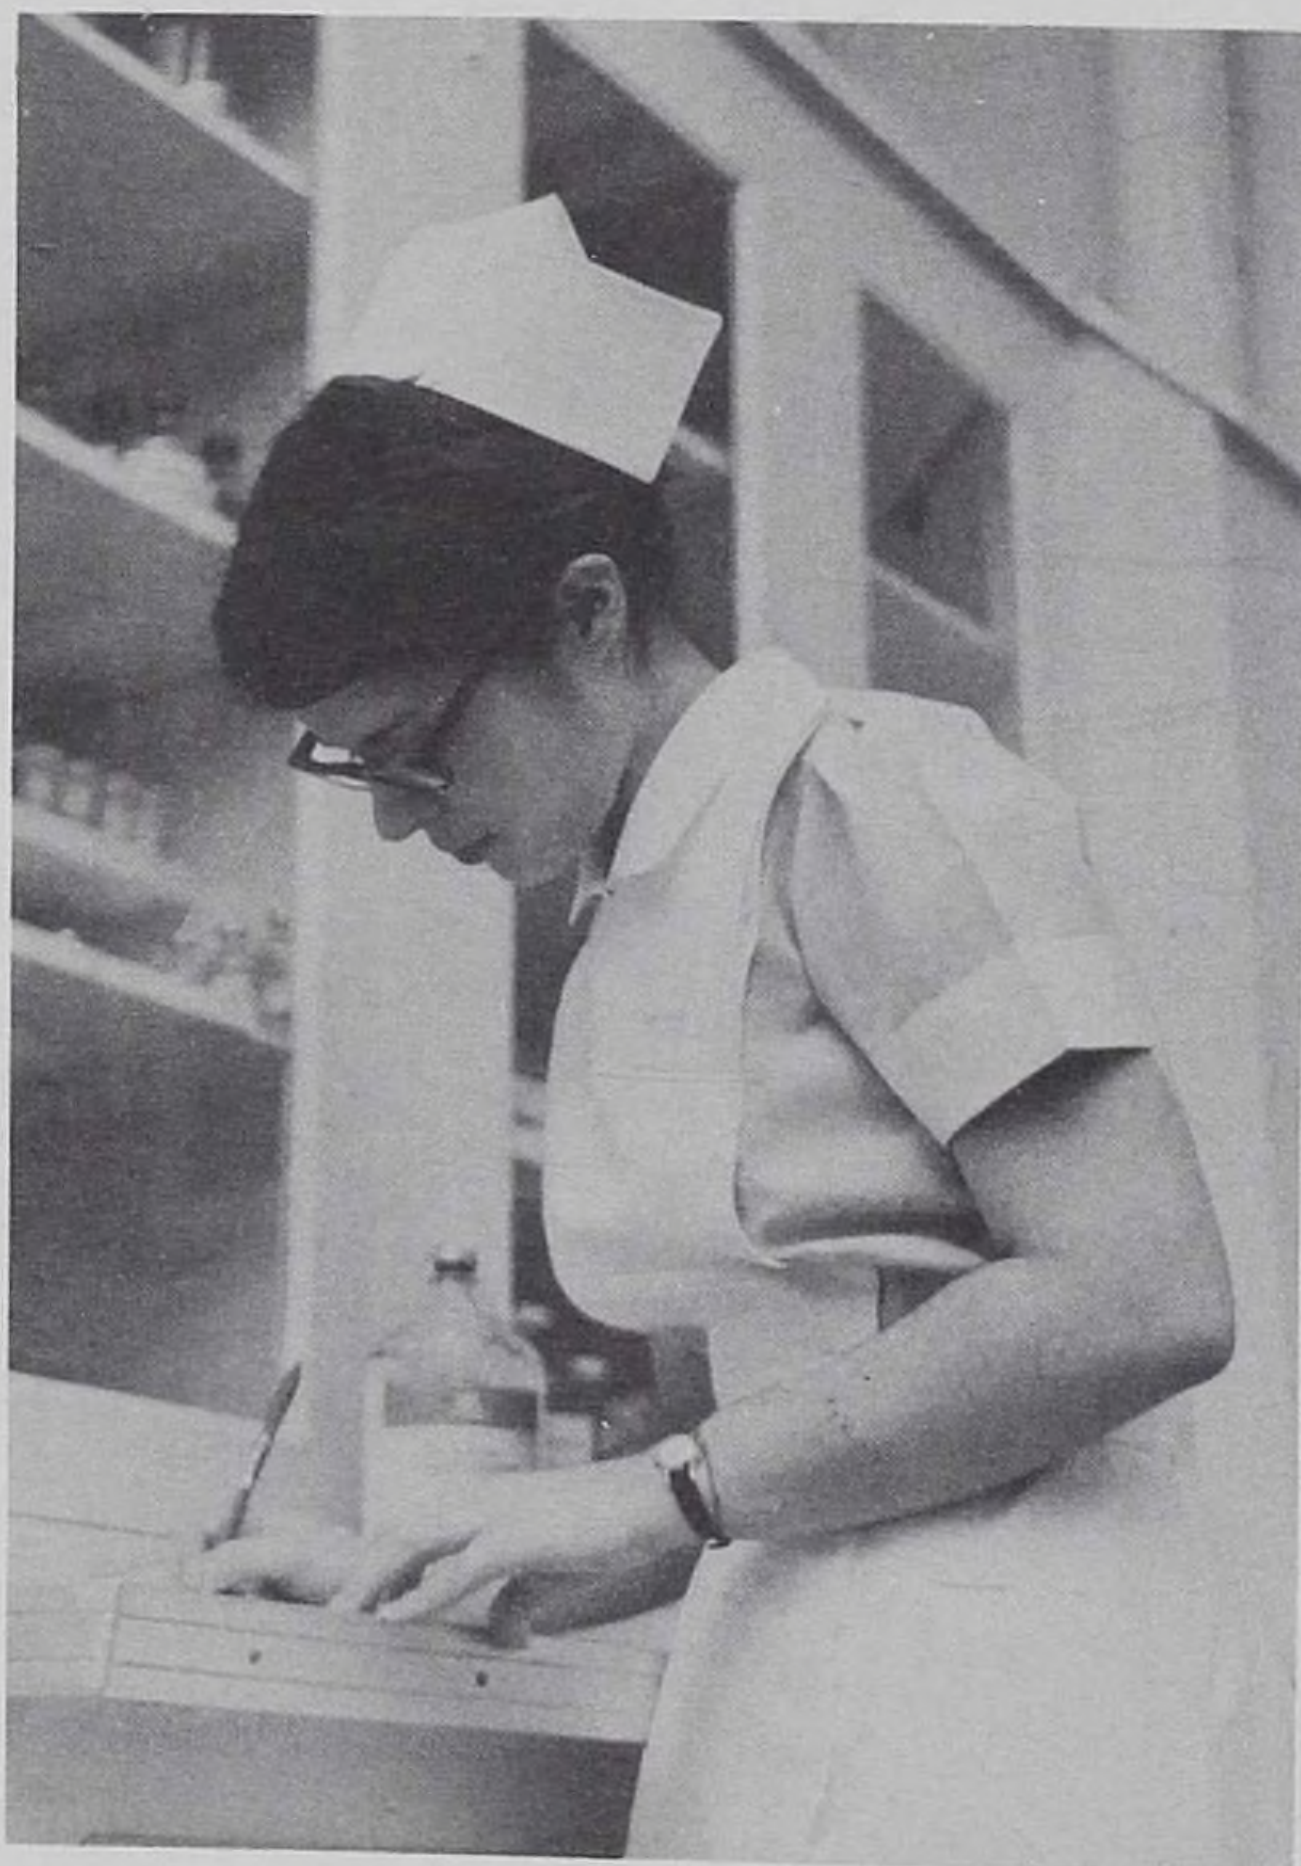

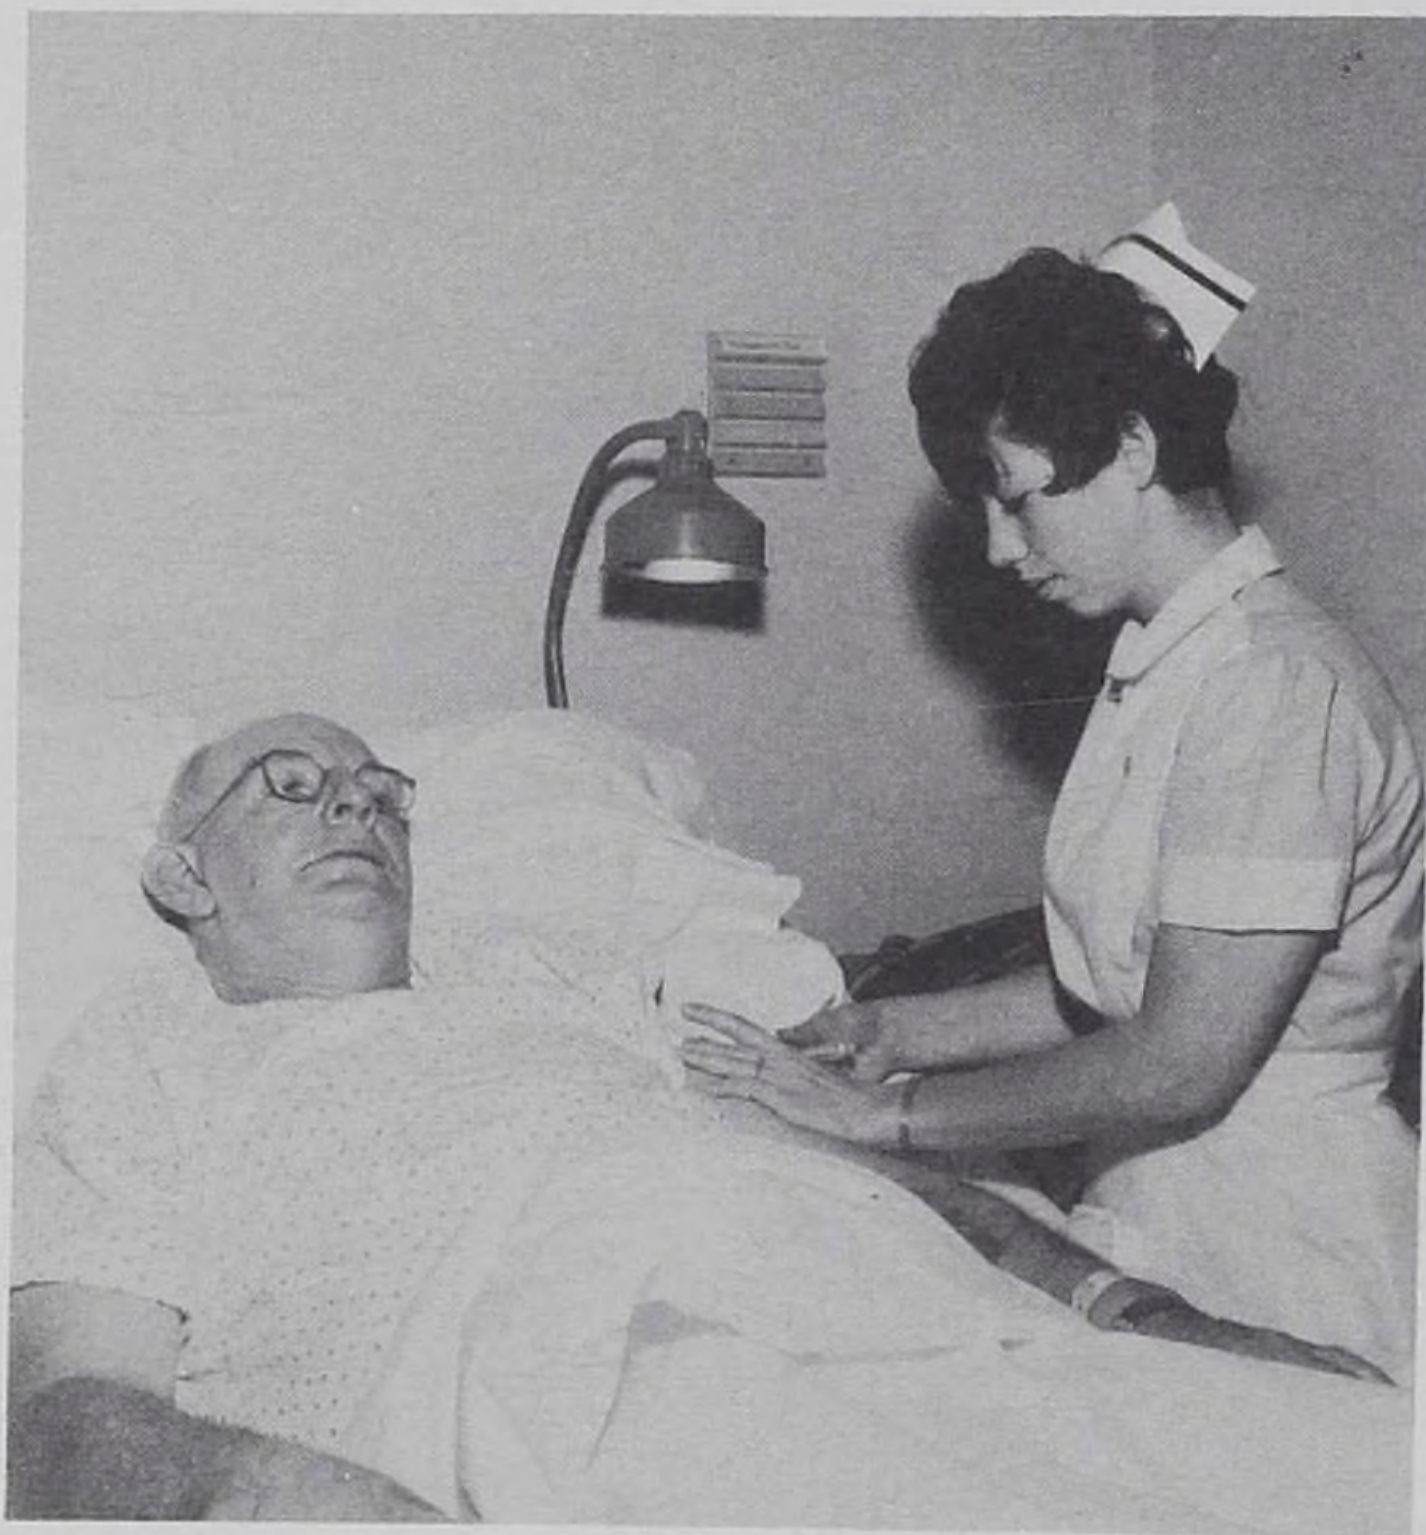

“You are the way
and the wayfarers.”

“When you work with love you bind yourself to one another.”

“These are the believers in life and the bounty of life, and their coffer is never empty.”

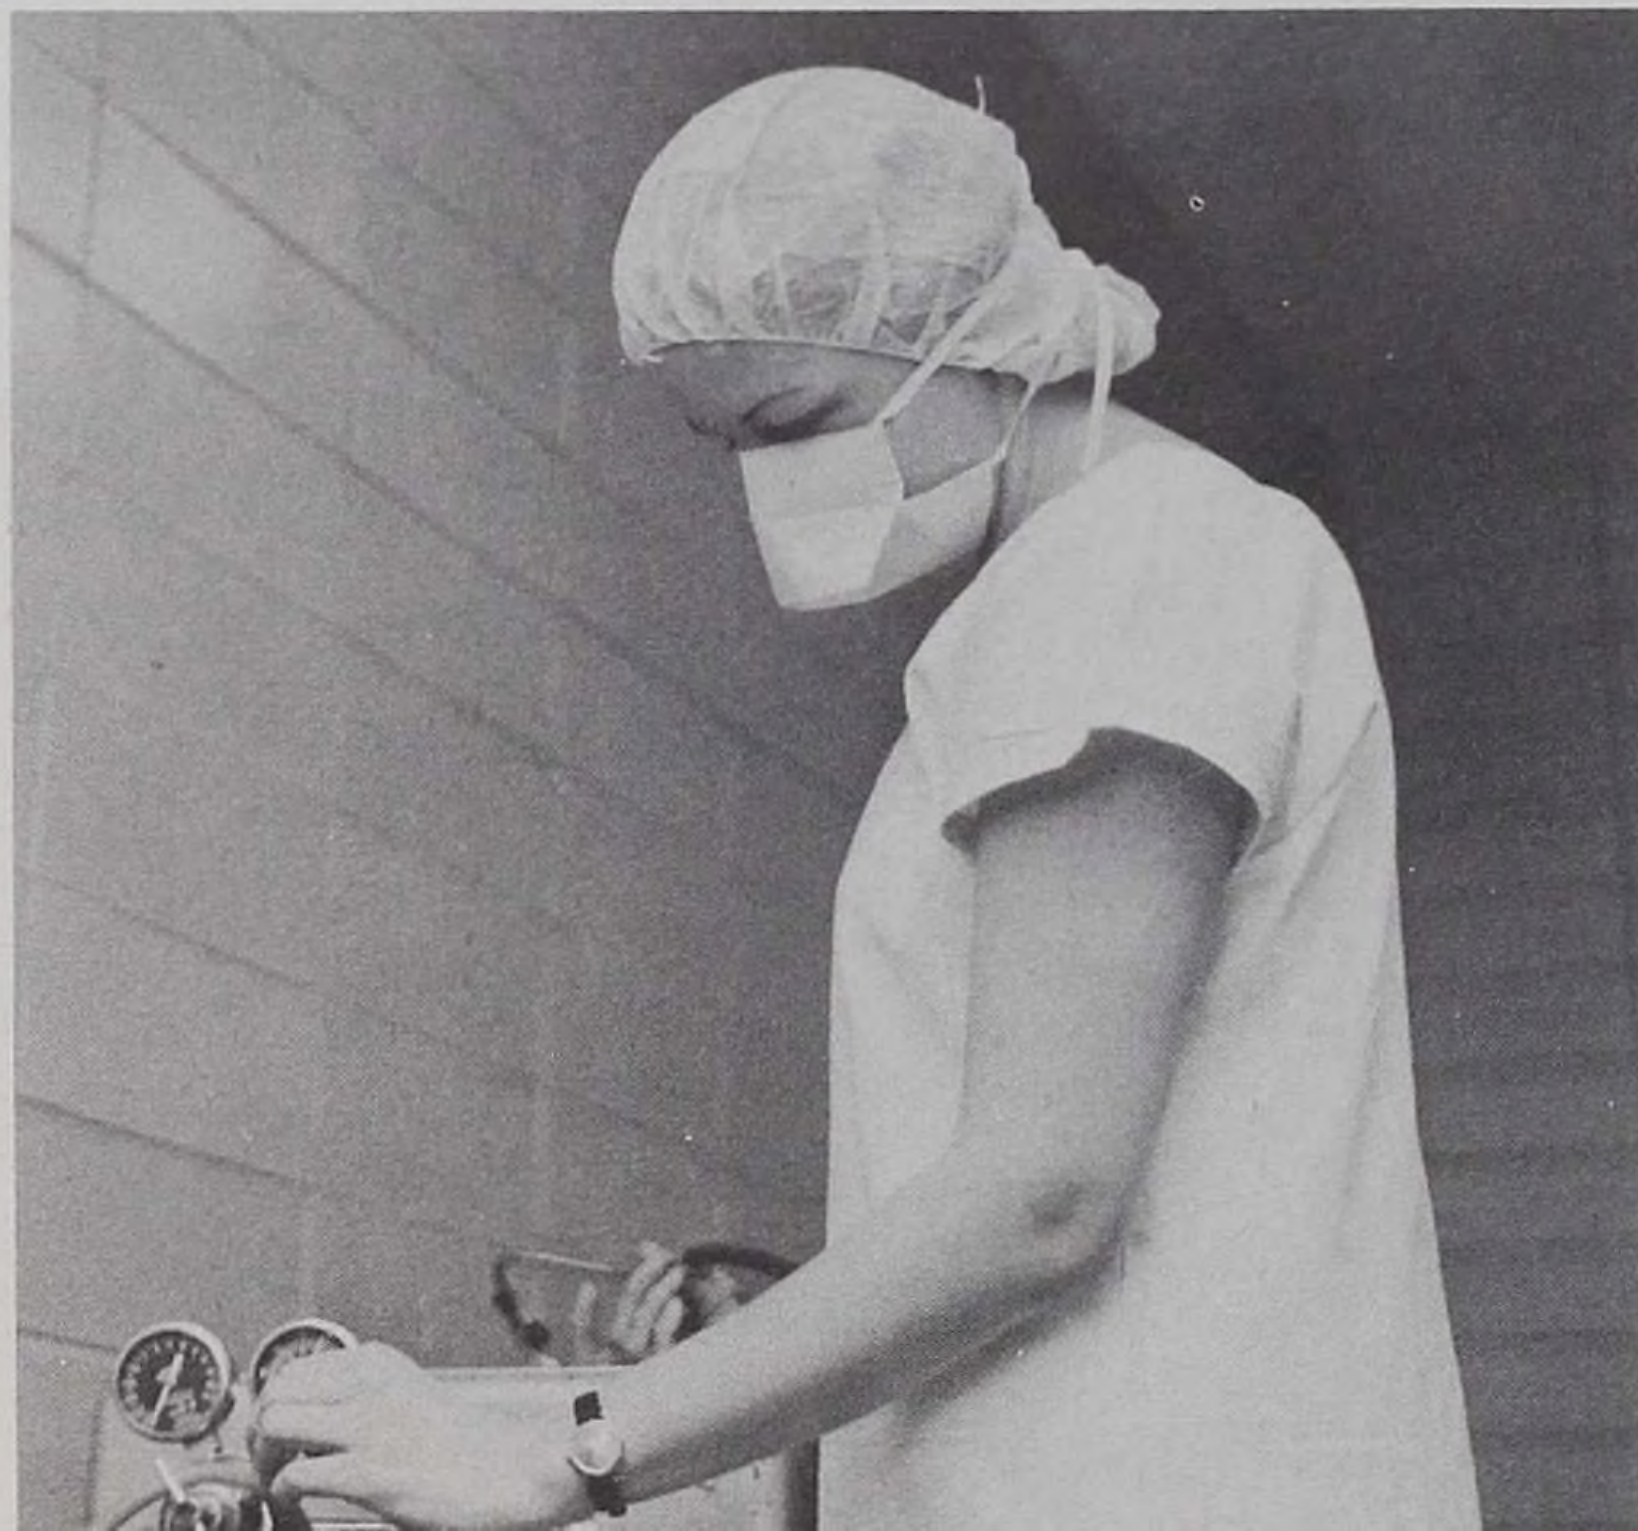

“Surely he who
is worthy to receive his days
and nights is worthy of all
else from you.”

“For in truth it is life that gives unto life — while you,
who deem yourself a giver,
are but a witness.”

“You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.”

“And he who has
deserved to drink
from the ocean of life
deserves to fill his
cup from your little stream.”

“Your friend is your needs answered . . .
seek him always with
hours to live.”
