IN ENDING, ALL THINGS BEGIN

"All changes,
Even the most longed for,
Have their melancholy;
For what we leave behind us
Is a part of ourselves;
We must die to one life Before we can enter into another.

— Anatole France
1881

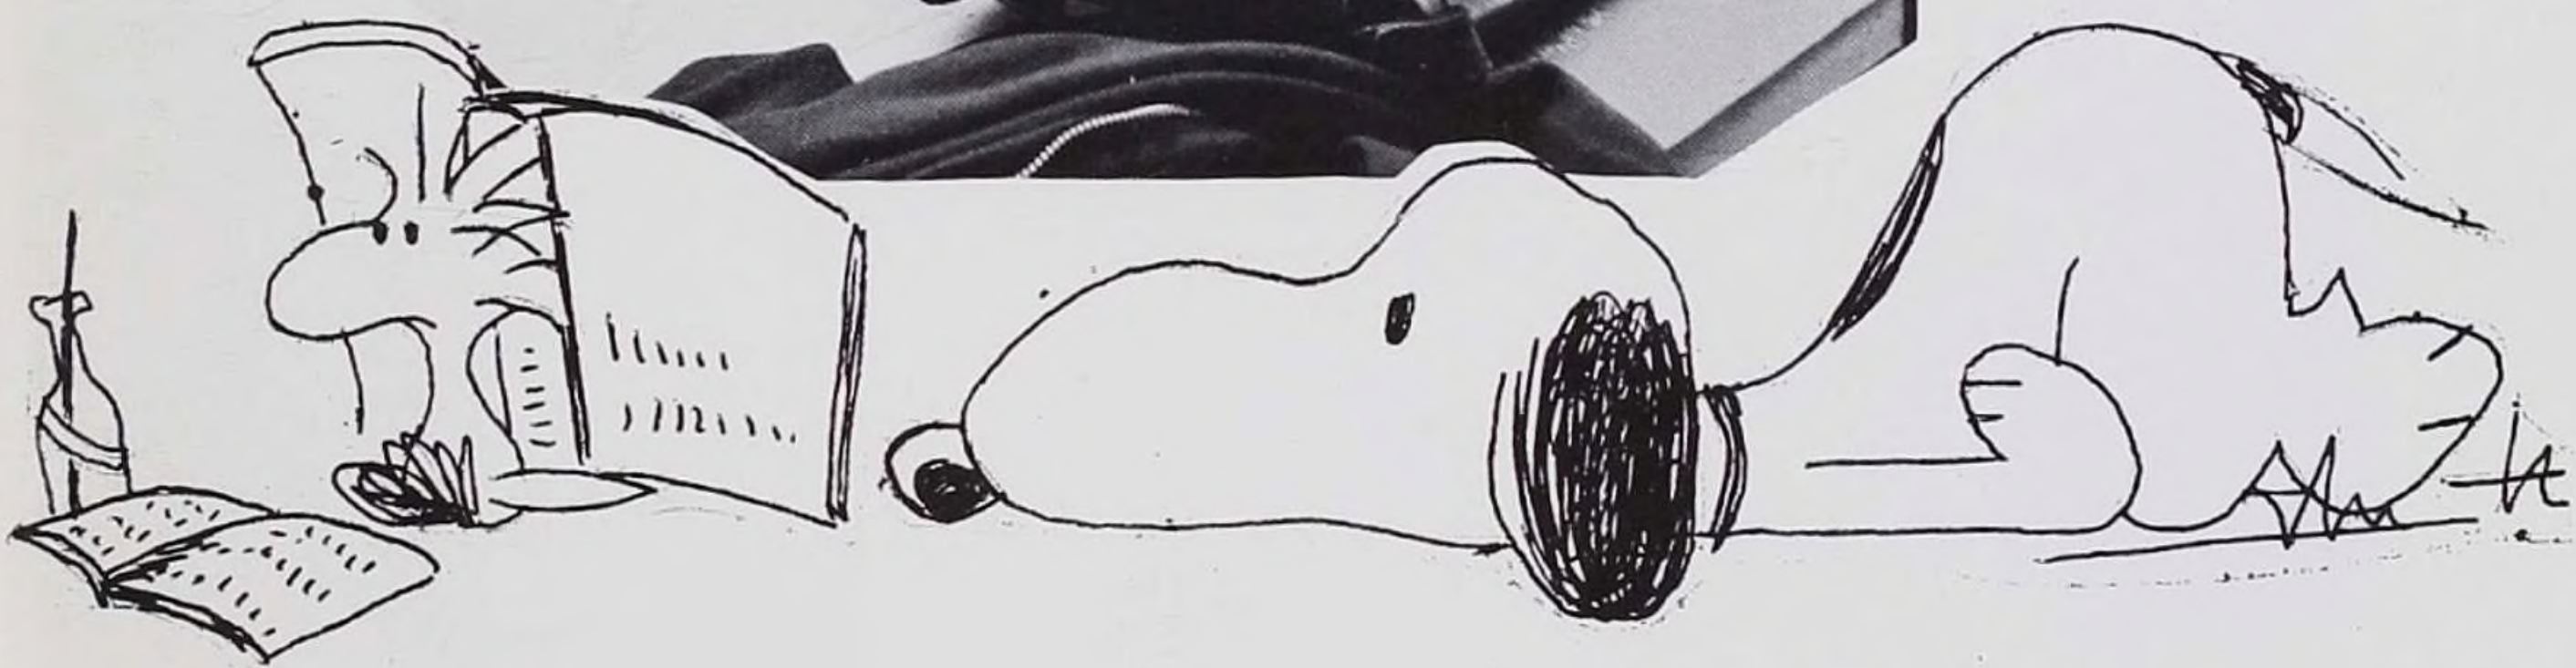

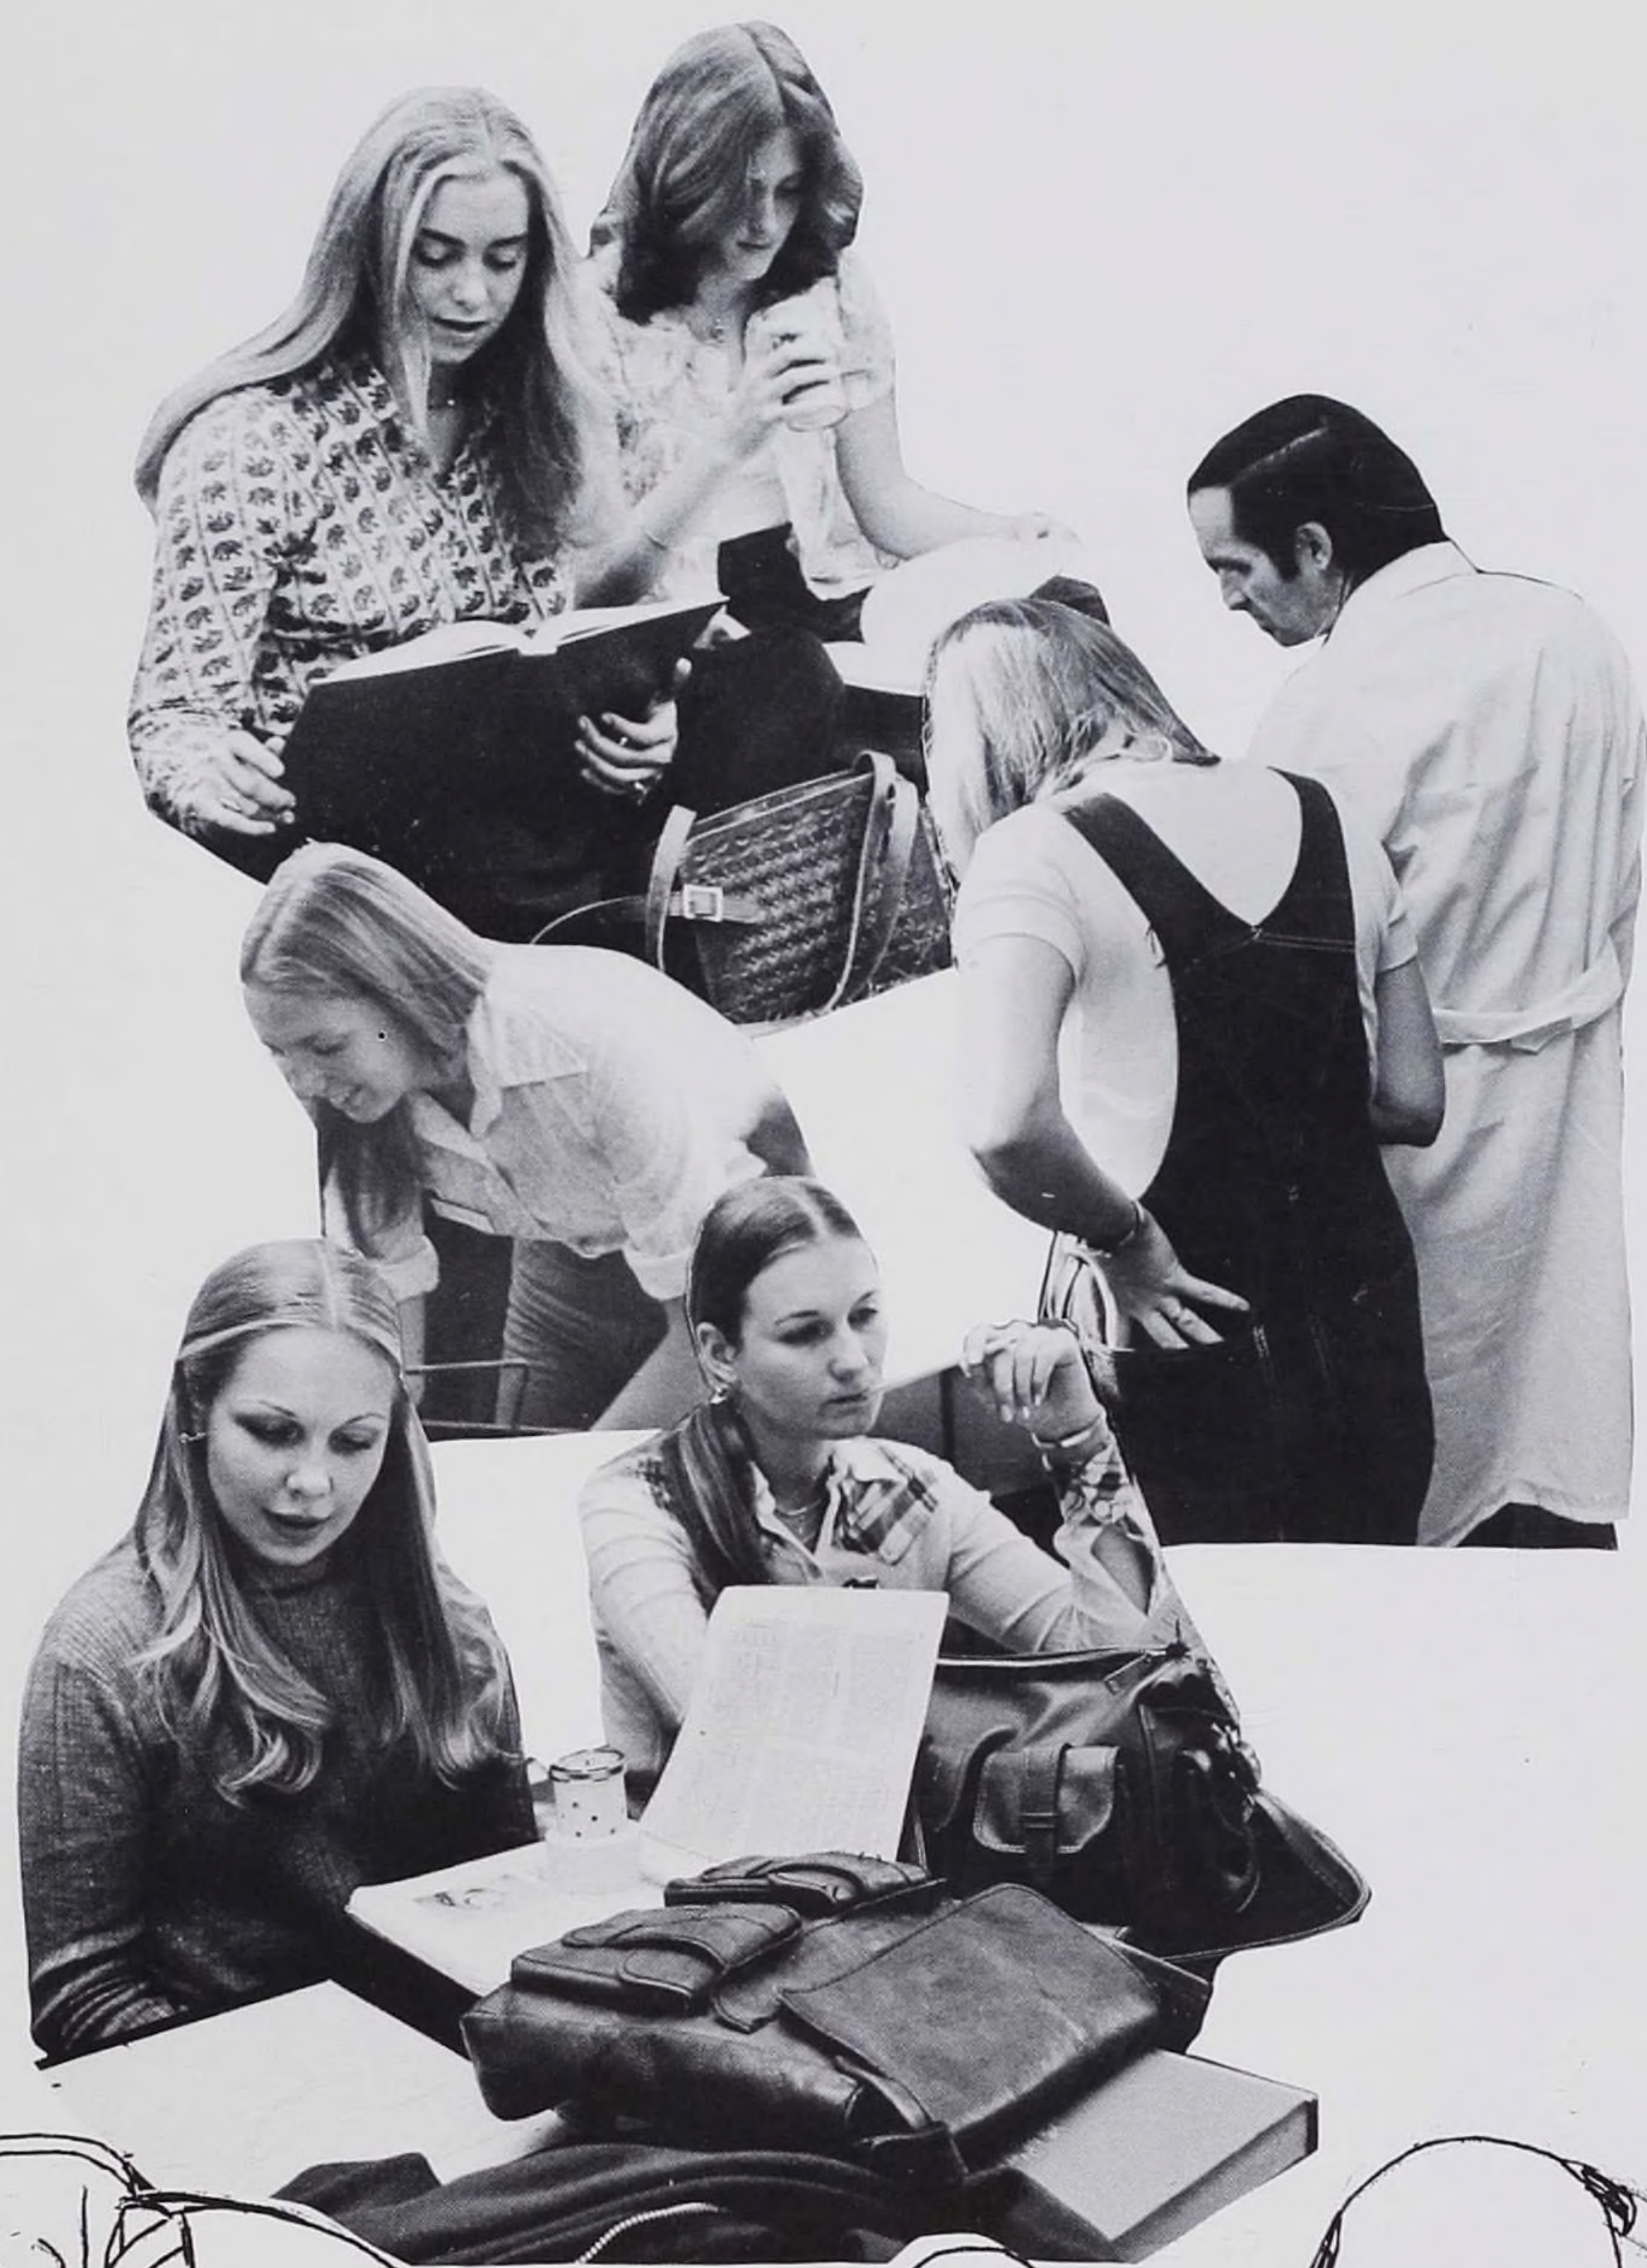

DEDICATED TO LEARNING
Whatever field we choose
Whatever path we follow
From life's beginning to its end
We are continually learning —
Teaching others and ourselves
Always striving to grow
Through our thoughts, actions, and beliefs
Through our caring for others.

A black and white collage of various people and cartoon characters. The collage includes a man with a beard holding a camera, a woman holding a book, a man in a suit, a woman in a nurse's uniform, and several cartoon characters like a boy with a star on his head, a girl with a star on her head, and a boy with a star on his head. The background is a dense, leafy pattern.

Whatever field we choose
 Whatever path we follow
 From life's beginning to its end
 We are continually learning —
 Teaching others and ourselves
 Always striving to grow
 Through our thoughts, actions, and beliefs
 Through our caring for others.

I'll be seeing you
 In all the familiar places
 That this heart of mine embraces All day through
 In that small cafe
 The park across the way
 The children's carousel
 The chestnut trees
 The wishing well.
 I'll be seeing you
 In every lovely summer's day In everything that's bright and gay I'll always think of you that way I'll see you in the morning sun And when the night is new I'll be looking at the moon
 But I'll be seeing you.

CLASS SONG

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me;
Let there be peace on earth,
The peace that was meant to be.

With God as our Father, Brothers all are we.
Let me walk with my brother
In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me,
Let this be the moment now,
With every step I take,
Let this be my solemn vow:

To take each moment and live each moment
In peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me.

CLASS SCRIPTURE

Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor.
For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.
Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?
And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

CLASS PRAYER

Lord, I shall pass through this world but once, If, therefore, there be any good thing I can do, or any kindness
I can show to any fellow creature, Let me do it now;
Let me not defer it,
For I shall not pass this way again. Amen.

ENGAGED

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a signature or a phrase, located below the cartoon drawing.

Every piece of marble has a statue in it waiting to be released by a man of sufficient skill to chip away the unnecessary parts. Just as the sculptor is to the marble, so is education to the soul. It releases it. For only educated men are free men. You cannot create a statue by smashing the marble with a hammer, and you cannot by force of arms release the spirit or the soul of man.

Confucius

God grant me the courage to change the things I can change, The serenity to accept those I cannot change,
And wisdom to know the difference.
But God, grant me the courage not to give up on what I think is right even though I think it is hopeless.

— Chester Nimitz

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing, nothing is going right Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there To brighten up even your darkest night
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am I'll come running to see you again Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call And I'll be there You've got a friend.

The Trials and Tribulations of the ESRUN'S

Once upon a time there was a group of girls. These girls were a various sort. All very different, but somewhat alike. They were a gay, happy group. The fate which had brought them all together was that each had decided to be an esrun. Now, esrun's are a different breed, and hard to picture unless you've run across one, or up & down - whichever you prefer. They gathered one year in a castle's gate, though many felt that it was more a dungeon than a castle. There were many walks in this castle-dungeon & the group of esrun's did not get to really know one another there. Soon they were transferred from that dungeon to another prison's walls. Settling that first year was rough. The summer had brought many hardships and only half of the esrun's had survived. The loss had left a bitter taste in many mouths, but it had also brought them closer together. The esrun's knew that they must unite if they wanted to "make it".

They grew in many ways. Intellectually as well as upstairs. They worked very hard, but soon learned to play just as hard. They gathered 9 10 weeks to drown away their sorrows.

As the second year passed by they played cherades, Switcheroo, and fell madly in love - every other week.

Although they were learning to play this second year - they still worked very hard.

More time passed until one of the esrun's finally said,
"Hey wait!
We have worked so hard that we are missing the fun that we will never be able to have again." So - the esrun's partied - formally & informally, ate danced, told jokes & secret gestures, established the P. N. A., decorated walls, did impersonations, and ate some more.

They made new friends and got to know their old friends better.

Wherever they traveled their trusty rehpargotohp was sure to follow.

They made sure that when they looked back, there would be good memories. For - although they learned a great deal those 3 years, they learned the most from those special people they knew and loved. &
THEIR FRIENDS!
