Getting Creative: Implementing "Fan Favorite" Voting via Survey Tool
Background

Advocate Health – Midwest Library
- Provides library services and resources to over 130,000 teammates in the Midwest Region
- Teammates include 2600+ researchers and published authors

Institutional Repository (IR)
- Hosted in Digital Commons
- Managed by Library staff since 2013
- ~7000 documents/records

Annual Scientific Day Conference
- Conference content, i.e. posters and presentations are hosted in our IR
- Conference presenters are Advocate Health graduate medical education residents, fellows, and faculty *
  * Library key stakeholder group
- Scientific Day Committee was looking for more ways to promote engagement across organization
The request

Fan Favorite Award for Posters

- Simple & easy to use
- Voting open to conference attendees and IR visitors

Digital Commons does not have a built-in voting system

- Their proposed “link” solution could send data to an email address
- Stakeholders wanted something more visually appealing/obvious
Getting creative: The solution

Cast your Fan Favorite Vote in 2 steps:
1. Click the “Vote” image to go to a preselected LibWizard Form

Lessons learned & future plans

Lessons

• Allow enough time for vote tallying
• To prevent duplicate votes – collect IP addresses

Future Plans

• Vote for your favorite poster, lightning talk, or paper at this year’s Midwest Chapter/MLA Annual Conference!
• Adding QR codes to printed posters for in person events
